resulted in a draft settlement document, which the parties are reviewing, actively discussing, and attempting to finalize.

- 2. The parties have twice stipulated to extend the time for response, currently up to and including thirty (30) days to May 11, 2007. This further stipulation is entered into in good faith and not for the purpose of delay, but rather to allow the parties to try and capitalize on their previous efforts and complete the written settlement document without further involvement of this Court.
- 3. Thus, in order to give the parties the additional time necessary to complete their negotiations and to preserve judicial resources, the parties hereby stipulate and respectfully request that this Court order that Marat Nigmatzyanov and Yevgeniy Leshchinsky shall have up to and including June 11, 2007 to move, answer or otherwise respond to the complaint.
